

PROVOCATION 4

Prue Chiles

Claudio
Molina
Camacho

MANCHESTER SCHOOL
OF ARCHITECTURE

What can Schools of Architecture teach us about practice?

Discussant: Matt Ault

Prue Chiles is Professor of Architecture at Newcastle. She is well known for her award winning design practice CE+CA which actively engages her students in live design projects in tandem with their education.

Claudio Molina Camacho is an architect who teaches architecture through live practice in both Chile and the UK. He is a practitioner in Chile, where he brings his pedagogical and professional practices together.

MANCHESTER SCHOOL
OF ARCHITECTURE

SYMPOSIUM

Prue Chiles

Eduardo
Aguirre León

MANCHESTER SCHOOL
OF ARCHITECTURE

How is built work approached within academia?
1:1 scale built projects as a teaching method

Discussant: Claudio Molina Camacho

Prue Chiles is Professor of Architecture at Newcastle. She is well known for her award winning design practice CE+CA which actively engages her students in live design projects in tandem with their education.

Eduardo Aguirre León is Professor of Architecture at the University of Talca, Chile. He is involved in the 'Taller de Obra' 1:1 Built Projects Workshop and supervises a programme of built dissertation projects at Talca.

MANCHESTER SCHOOL
OF ARCHITECTURE